Noah's Ark

Tempo = 105

Words & Music by
Lyndell R. Martn ©1981

C G D Em A7
1 Acoustic Piano
Intro:
D D7 Em G
4
Now, long a - go in days of old, when all the world was mean. The
A A6 D D7
7
Lord looked down up- on the earth and said, "I'll wash it clean. I'll cause the rain to flood the plains and
Em G A A6 D
10
d wash a- way the sin, and fill the earth with peace a- gain. If Em A7 D
13
I can find a right - eous man." No - ah,
Em C G D
16
take your stand. I'm look - ing for a right - eous man,
Em A7 D C
19
to fill the earth with peace a - gain. Interlude:

© 1981

G D D7 Em
22
When No - ah heard the call he said, "I'll build the Lord an
G A A6 D
25
ark. I'll build it long. I'll make it strong. Get rea- dy to em- bark." But no- one would be-
D7 Em G A A6 D
28
- lieve him. They did - n't heed the call, un - til the rain be - gan to fall.
Em A7 D
31
The de - vil had de - cieved them all. No -
Em C G
34
ah, build that ark. The storm clouds are grow - ing
D Em A7 D
37
dark. But no - one climbed a- board the ark.
C G D Em A7
40
Interlude: Now,
D D7 Em G
43
Now, all the folks who missed the boat, they had to learn to swim. I'll bet they wished a thou-sand times that they had listen-ed in. When No - ah tried to tell 'em,

A A6 D D7
46
Em G A A6 D
49a
all they had to say was "Save it for a rain - y day." They Em A7 D
52
wait - ed till it was to late. No - ah
Em C G D
55
warned them all, be - fore the rain be - gan to fall,
Em A7 D C
58
but they re- fused to heed the call. Interlude:
G D D7 Em
61
The Lord is tell- ing us to - day to climb a- board the G A A6 D D7
64
ark. The storm clouds are gath- er - ing, and things are look- ing dark. If you're not rea- dy
Em G A A6 D
67
for the storm, you'd bet- ter come on in. To - day we have an Ark a - gain,

D Em A7 D
70
and Jes - us is the Ark my friend. Chi -
Em C G
73
ren, come on in. The Lord is com- ing back a - D Em A7 D
76
gain. The Lord is com- ing back a - gain.
C G D Em A7
79
Tag:
D D
82b